LETTERS FROM THE ANTHRACITE REGION.

Correspondence of the Bedford Gazette.

WILKES BARRE, Sept. 7, 1867.

NO. I.

Dear Gazette:—Wyoming Valley is a spot dear to every Pennsylvanian, and though there are many who have journeyed hither, to see the historic grounds, "famous in story and song," still there are many whose eyes have not feasted upon this lovely vale. Thinking a description of some of the points of interest, may be acceptable to your readers, I seat myself to jot down a few thoughts in that regard. Scottish Campbell, in his "Gertrude of Wyoming," and our own Halleck, in his "Wyoming," besides scores of minor poets, have spread the name and fame of Wyoming Valley to earth's remotest bounds. Wyoming Valley, (a name derived from an Indian word, signifying large plains), is situated in the centre of this county (Luzerne). Its history has been written by at least four historians, and its scenery, the battles fought here and the thrilling incidents connected with its history, have furnished materials for the pens and pencils of numerous poets, novelists, and artists. It has been visited by nobles, and bards and travelers from various parts of the civilized world, have joined with Campbell, in saying that Wyoming is "the lovliest land of all, that see the Atlantic wave their morn restore." It is twenty-one miles in length, with an average breadth of three miles. The Susquehannah river gracefully winds through the centre of the valley. The valley contains forty thousand acres of land, twenty-five thousand of which are cultivated, and yield abundant harvests to the labors of the husbandman. On a pleasant morning with a few friends, we take the cars at Wilkes Barre, and ride within a half mile of Prospect Rock. "The Rock" is two and a half miles from Wilkes Barre, and is the most celebrated point of observation, because the most convenient, and is 750 feet above the river. Mounting this massive rock, and obtaining so grand and extended a view of the valley below, it seems no wonder that the Indian fought so hard before he was forced from his beautiful hunting grounds. How different the view now from that which opened to the gaze of the red man as he stood upon this same rock a century ago! Then it was a dense wilderness, with here and there a trail path; now below us are seen scores of coal-works, foundries, railroads, large towns and villages, and fertile fields. Near "The Rock," is a large Hotel. The location is fine and it is a favorite resort in the summer. Descending to Wilkes Barre we find a large and thriving town of several thousand inhabitants, and with its street cars, manufactories and crowds of people upon the streets, it presents a busy scene of industry. Coming back to my native town, after a few years absence, nearly all the faces are strange to me, while five years ago, I knew almost every one I met. I wander through the streets curious to note the changes that have taken place. Even the house I was born in must be torn down to make room for a more modern and elegant one. The next point of interest we visit, is Forty Fort, four miles from Wilkes Barre, a name given to it from the fact that, during the Indian wars forty men built a fort here and heroically defended it. This was where the terrible massacre of Wyoming took place, on the third day of July, 1776. Here on a rise of ground, on the bank of the Susquehanna, the Wyoming Monument was erected. It had long been the intention to erect a suitable monument on this spot, but it was not till the women of Wyoming took the design in hand, that the work was completed. They engaged in it, as a labor of love, and with what donations they secured, and the results of the labors of willing and industrious hands, ere long "Wyoming Monument" was erected. It is an obelisk, about sixty feet in height. I should love to give in full the inscription that it bears, but it is too long. I copy a part of it, as follows: "A small band of patriotic Americans, chiefly the undisciplined, the youthful and the aged, spared by inefficiency from the distant ranks of the Republic, with a courage that deserved success, boldly met and bravely fought a combined British, tory, and Indian force, of thrice their number. Numerical superiority alone gave success to the invader, and wide spread havoc, desolation and ruin marked his savage and bloody footsteps through the valley."

Things have moved along quietly in the Valley for years. The development of its mineral wealth, has brought in crowds of all sorts of people, but while it has increased in wealth and material prosperity, the romance of its history closed with the last century. Our next point is "Dial," or "Campbell's Ledge," seven hundred feet above the river. It is twelve miles from Wilkes Barre, and is much visited by travelers, on account of the beautiful picturesque view of Wyoming presented to the eye from its summit. This rock was the noon mark of the first inhabitants of Wyoming, and hence it was called Dial Rock. It is also called "Campbell's Ledge," because it was supposed that on this rock Thomas Campbell wrote "Gertrude of Wyoming" But this cannot be, because Campbell never visited America, but wrote his poem, from descriptions he had seen and heard of the valley.

I must defer descriptions of other points of interest, for other letters; for I fear that already this letter is too long. As I have stood at the places I have described I have not forgotten the hills and valleys of dear old Bedford, upon whose marvellous beauty I have often feasted my eyes, and still hope again to enjoy the same pleasure, and to take by the hand, those whose friend ship I gained while a resident among you. More anon. WYOMING.

AMNESTY.

PROCLAMATION BY THE PRESIDENT.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.

By the President of the United States of America:

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, In the month of July, Anno Domini 1861, the two Houses of Congress, with extraordinary unanimity, solemnly declared that the war then existing was not waged on the part of the Government in any spirit of oppression, nor for any purpose of conquest or subjugation, nor purpose of overthrowing or interfering with the rights or established institutions of the States, but to defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution, and to preserve the Union with all the dignity, equality and rights of the several States unimpaired, and that as soon as these objects should be accomplished the war ought to cease; and, whereas, the President of the United States, on the 8th day of December, A. D. 1863, and on the 26th day of March, A. D., 1864, did, with objects of suppressing the then existing rebellion, of inducing all persons to return to their loyalty, and of restoring the authority of the United States, issued proclamations offering amnesty and pardon to all persons who had directly or indirectly participated in the then existing rebellion, except as in those proclamations was specified and reserved; and whereas, the President of the United States did, on the 29th day of May, A. D. 1865 issue a proclamation with the same objects before mentioned, and to the end that the authority of the Government of the United States might be restored, and that peace, order and freedom might be established, and the President did, by the said last proclamation, proclaim and declare that he thereby granted to all persons who had directly or indirectly participated in the then existing rebellion, except as therein excepted, amnesty and pardon with the restoration of all rights of property except as to slaves, and except in certain cases where legal proceedings had been instituted, but upon condition that such persons should take and subscribe an oath therein prescribed, which oath should be registered for permanent preservation; and, whereas, in and by said last mentioned proclamation of the 29th day of May, A. D. 1865, fourteen extensive classes of persons therein specially described, were altogether excepted and excluded from the benefits thereof; and, whereas, the President of the United States did, on the 2d day of April, A. D. 1866, issue a proclamation declaring that the insurrection was at an end and was thenceforth to be so regarded; and whereas, there now exists an organized armed resistance of misguided citizens or others to the authority of the United States in the States of Georgia, South Carolina, Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama, Louisiana, Arkansas, Mississippi, Florida and Texas, and the laws can be sustained and enforced therein by the proper civil authority, State or Federal, and the people of said States, are well and loyally disposed, and have conformed, and if permitted to do so, will conform in their legislation to the condition of affairs growing out of the amendment to the Constitution of the United States prohibiting slavery within the limits and jurisdiction of the United States; and, whereas, there no longer exists any reasonable ground to apprehend within the States which were involved in the late rebellion a renewal thereof, or any unlawful resistance by the people of said States to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and, whereas, as large standing armies, military tribunals, and the suspension of the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus, and the right of trial of jury, are in time of peace dangerous to public liberty, incompatible with the individual rights of the citizen, contrary to the genius and spirit of our free institutions, and exhaustive of the national resources, and ought not, therefore, to be sanctioned or allowed, except in cases ses of actual necessity for repelling invasion or suppressing insurrection or rebellion; and, whereas, a retaliatory or vindictive policy, attended by unnecessary disqualifications, pains, penalties, confiscations and disfranchisement, now as always tend to hinder reconciliation among the people and National restoration, while it must seriously embarrass, obstruct and repress the popular energies and National industry and enterprise; and, whereas, for these reasons it is now deemed essential to the public welfare and to the more perfect restoration of Constitutional law and order that the said last mentioned proclamation, so as aforesaid issued on the 29th day of May, A. D. 1865, should be modified, and that the full beneficent pardon conceded thereby should be opened and further extended to a large number of persons who by its aforesaid exceptions have been hitherto excluded from executive clemency;

Now, therefore, be it known, that I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, do hereby proclaim and declare that the full pardon described in the said proclamation of the 29th day of May, A. D. 1865, shall henceforth be opened and extended to all persons who, directly or indirectly, participated in the late rebellion, with the restoration of all privileges, immunities and rights of property except as to property with regard to slaves, and except in cases of legal proceedings under the laws of the United States, but upon this condition, nevertheless, that each person who shall seek to avail himself of this proclamation shall take and subscribe to the following oath, and shall cause the same to be registered for permanent preservation, in the same manner and with the same effect with the oath prescribed in the said proclamation of the 29th day of May, 1865, namely:

"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) in the presence of Almighty God, that I will henceforth faithfully support, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Union of the States thereunder, and that I will in like manner abide by and faithfully support all laws and proclamations that have been made during the late rebellion with reference to the emancipation of slaves, so help me God."

The following persons and no others are excluded from the benefits of this proclamation of the 26th day of May, A. D., 1865, namely:

First, the chief or pretended chief executive officers, including the President, Vice President and all heads of departments of the pretended Confederate or rebel government, and all who were agents thereof in foreign State and countries, and all who had or pretended to hold in the service of the said pretended Confederate Government a military rank or title above the grade of brigadier general, and naval rank or title above that of captain, and all who were or pretended to be Governors of States while maintaining, abetting or submitting to and acquiescing in the rebellion.

Second, All persons who, in any way treated otherwise than as lawful prisoners of war, persons who, in any capacity, were employed or engaged in the military or naval service of the United States.

Third, All persons who, at the time they may seek to obtain the benefits of this proclamation, are actually in civil, military or naval confinement or custody, or legally held to bail, either before or after conviction, and, all persons who were engaged directly or indirectly in the assassination of the late President of the United States, or in any plot of conspiracy in any manner therewith connected.

In testimony whereof, I have signed these presents with my hand, and have caused the seal of the United States to be thereunto affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, [SEAL] this 7th day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

By the President:

WILLIAM H. SEWARD,
Secretary of State.

AGREEABLE CORRESPONDENCE.

The following agreeable correspondence recently took place by telegraph between two Democratic Governors. We never read anything in English that pleased us better:

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 9, 1867.

Hon. Henry H. Haight, Governor elect of California, San Francisco:

I congratulate you on your election. It will gladden the friends of constitutional liberty the country through.

JAMES E. ENGLISH.

THE ANSWER.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 10, 1867.

To Governor James E. English:

Thanks for your dispatch. California has echoed the voice of Connecticut. You set us a glorious example. We have but followed where you led in the sacred cause of constitutional liberty. H. H. HAIGHT.

BAKED HAM.—Most persons boil hams. They are much better baked if baked right. Soak for an hour in clean water and wipe dry, and spread it all over with a thin flour batter, and lay in a deep dish with sticks under it to keep it out of the gravy. When fully done, take off the skin and batter crusted upon the flesh side, and set away to cool. You will find it very delicious, but rich for dyspeptics, says one of our agricultural exchanges.

DECREASING.—The length of these early autumnal days, or at least, the daylight portion of the hours—is perceptibly diminishing. Other sad reminders of the waning year in silver leaflets and sombre shadows are also making themselves seen and observed; and happy, if not to be envied, are those fortunate ones who can look lovingly back upon the past seasons of spring and summer, with complacency and contentment and greet the future with undiminished hopes.

PEPPER 'EM.—Those who are so unfortunate as to be troubled with bedbugs about their houses, may find a remedy in the following recipe which a lady sent to an exchange:—Add a quarter pound of Cayenne pepper to a pailful of boiling water, let stand and settle, when it is ready to serve. For papering walls, mix the same with flour paste, and the bugs will not nest under the paper.

LIMING LAND.

This practice, which is so common in British agriculture, is but little known in our country outside of New Jersey and Pennsylvania. In a recent visit to the grain growing districts of these States, we found lime as highly esteemed as manure, and a regular part of their rotation, as we have noticed elsewhere. Where lime can be had at ten cents a bushel and under, as it can in all the limestone regions of Pennsylvania, the practice is almost universal. It is used a good deal on farms, far distant from the lime-kilns, where it costs at the depot or canal twenty cents a bushel and upwards. The conviction of its utility in these States may be said to be universal, and if it is not used, it is either owing to the high price of the article, or to the fact that agriculture receives little attention.

It is applied by some to the sod immediately after mowing and this sod is turned under either in the fall or spring for corn. It is claimed that the lime stimulates the growth of grass, and affects favorably every crop in the rotation. It would be impossible, without liming, to keep up the grain farms to the present degree of productiveness. It is also claimed for the summer application and the spring plowing, that it distributes the lime more equally, and keeps it near the surface. The lime which is carried down by the fall of winter rains, is brought to the surface again when the sod is inverted. By this method also, the lime has more time to act upon the inert material in the soil, and to prepare plant food for the subsequent crop. Other farmers are quite as certain that the best time to apply lime is upon the inverted sod in the spring, while the ground is preparing for corn. They want to keep the lime as near the surface as possible, and have no fears of its late action upon the crop. The quantity applied to the acre is from thirty to a hundred bushels, depending somewhat upon the character of the soil, the price of the lime, and the theoretical views of the planter.—The better the soil, that is the more clay and vegetable matter it contains, the more lime it will bear. Some think a hundred bushels quite too much, and that so much has a tendency to turn the stalks yellow, and to diminish the yield. Smaller quantities, say from 30 to 50 bushels, are more commonly applied. The lime is usually brought from the lime kiln or depot in its caustic state, and is dropped upon the land in heaps where it is to be used. It is there slaked by the application of water and is about doubled in quantity by this process. It is then spread as evenly as possible over the land. This makes a cheap dressing for the land even at twenty cents a bushel. The effect is very clearly marked where it is used. It keeps up the fertility of the soil, and makes remunerative crops even without manure. Of course, with manure the crops are larger and pay better.—The question very naturally arises, if liming land will pay in other districts where it is not now used? Without answering this question at once in the affirmative, we think the results in these States are such as to encourage every farmer who can get lime at a reasonable price to make the experiment. We have abundance of lime rock in regions where it is not burned at all. The conviction is quite common that it will not pay to use limestone soils, but in Pennsylvania the effects of the application are quite as marked upon these soils as upon any other. Then it is supposed that it is a difficult and expensive process to burn lime. Very much of this article is made upon the farms where it is used without even a kiln for burning, as we shall show in an illustrated article next month. The lime can be made by the most unskilled labor, and with roughest and cheapest kinds of fuel. Wherever there is lime rock and cheap fuel, we have no doubt the lime can be furnished at less than twenty cents a bushel. In the vicinity of cities and large towns oyster shells accumulate in quantities, and can be put to better use than road making and grading. They are easily reduced with brush or peat, and afford cheap lime and generally of better quality than the rock yields.—We desire, to have the experiment made in other States on a scale large enough to settle the question. We believe many of our farmers will doubtless find it to their interest to use lime.—American Agriculturist.

EGGS.—There is much in breed, in egg-laying qualities. But the most is in good treatment—making the hen at home. A crowded place will not do.—Too many hens together is bad. Why? Because it interferes with tranquility. The points of success are: Warm quarters; room; clean; unmolested; plenty of food; a variety of feed, varied daily with animal food of some kind, it matters little what; water changed often; crushed bones, either burnt or otherwise; pulverized earth or spent ashes to wallow in; light; and as much cheerfulness as possible. Then select good breeds. The Spanish are among the best layers, and are almost anywhere to be found. But remember the good treatment; or dispense with hens for profit.—Coleman's Rural World.

CROP AND TRADE PROSPECT.—The crops this year have, generally speaking, never been equalled. Corn has been somewhat injured in some localities by excessively dry and in others by excessively wet weather, but the result is good in all the great corn growing belt of States, and Pennsylvania as well. In the eastern part of this State, and indeed along a considerable portion of the Atlantic coast, potatoes have been severely injured, in some places wholly destroyed, by the exceeding wet weather Yet, notwithstanding these local drawbacks, our crops are unprecedented in yield and quantity planted. These things are expected to produce an active and profitable fall trade.

HENRY W. WILLIAMS.

"Resolved, That warned by past misfortunes, we ask that the Supreme Court of the State be placed in harmony with the political opinions of a majority of the people."

Thus, the Supreme Court, which is the final arbiter between the weak and the strong, between minorities and majorities, is to be swayed by political bias against the rights of that portion of the people who may happen to be in the minority. Have minorities no rights which majorities are bound to respect? Nay, are not the fewest number of people lawyers, or jurists, and is not often the smallest minority right, on questions of law, rather than the mass who have had no legal or judicial education? Who, therefore, could trust a man as Supreme Judge, who will agree to substitute for his own deliberate judgment, the crude opinions of the mob?

Again,

HENRY W. WILLIAMS

is the candidate of a party which holds that a man may repudiate his contract to pay a debt in gold and silver, by paying the same in paper money, thus actually making Government bonds worth no more than ordinary paper money. This is repudiation. Who, therefore, will vote for H. W. Williams, and become a repudiationist?

The Great Reaction.

The elections in Connecticut, California, Maine and Montana, foreshadow the speedy downfall of radicalism. The old tricks of the party, such as the cry of "copperhead," "traitor," &c., have lost their power. The crisis in public affairs has come. Either the Radical party, or the country itself, must expire in the throes of dissolution. To the extravagance, corruption, licentiousness and want of statesmanship, manifested in that party, do the people owe the intolerable burthen of debt under which they groan. The taxation is enormous, partial, injudicious. A tariff devised by Yankee manufacturers, paralyzes the commerce of the country and heavily taxes the overburthened poor. The South is cursed by an unwise and unjust cotton tax. The holders of bonds, who made fortunes out of the miseries of the country, are exempt from taxation, while the farmer and laborer are made to bear its heavy weight. Our revenue laws are so framed that honest men are compelled to bear ever increasing burthens, or abandon employments in which they had invested their capital, while dishonest ones escape their share of Federal taxation. There is unpardonable waste in collecting the revenues and flagrant extravagance in their expenditure.

Under the unhappy rule of Radicalism, we behold Disunion and discord in the nation, liberty almost extinguished, the Constitution of our fathers trampled under foot, peculation and plunder the order of the day, in State and national legislatures, the revolted States, after their submission, given over to the despotism of the military and to the domination of laws that would disgrace the legislation of Apache Indians. No wonder that an injured and indignant people are rising on every hand to drive the money changers out of the temple of American liberty.

Amnesty!

On our outside will be found the Proclamation of Freedom lately issued by President Johnson. The half million, or more, of white men restored to the privileges of citizenship, can not be disfranchised by any acts of Congress to be passed hereafter. The chains put upon them by Radical knavery, in order to bind them hand and foot until after the next Presidential election, have been stricken from their limbs, and though they may not be registered as voters at elections to be held under the Reconstruction Satraps, they will all vote, and their votes will be counted, for President in 1868. Andrew Johnson's proclamation of amnesty to the people of the South, will immortalize its author in the love and esteem of the American nation.

WE are indebted to the kindness of a friend, for a copy of the great speech of Henry Clay Dean, of Iowa, on the Financial System of the Country. We will publish as much of it as our space will allow, in our next.

ELECTION DAY, Tuesday, Oct. 8.

THE NEGROES IN THE CARS!

The Colored Brethren on Wheels!

THE SLEEPING-CAR STINK-LAW!

Glorious Equality, first of Radical Graces!

Our attention has recently been called to the practical workings of a law passed, last winter, by our State Legislature, imposing heavy penalties upon railroad companies for refusing to permit negroes to ride in any of their passenger cars. As the law formerly stood, railroad conductors could compel negroes to ride in separate cars provided for them. As it stands now, they have the same choice of seats, and berths in sleeping-cars, as white people. A friend of ours relates that as he was traveling from Philadelphia to Huntingdon, a few nights ago, he took a berth in a sleeping car, and when about retiring, his attention was attracted by loud talking and scuffling on the platform of the car. Proceeding to the scene of the disturbance, he discovered a huge male negro in a controversy with one of the railroad officials about obtaining a berth in the sleeping-car. The ticket agent had refused to sell the darkey a ticket, and the colored gentleman was trying to force his way into the car without the requisite piece of stamped paste-board. A policeman came up, however, and settled the business, by telling the ticket agent that, under the law, if he refused to sell the negro a berth ticket, on account of color, he would be amenable to a fine of FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS, and subject to pay a like sum to the negro upon an action for debt! This had the desired effect, and the African was handed the coveted ticket. It so happened, however, that but one berth was vacant, and that was half of a double berth partly occupied by a white man. The negro divested himself of hat, boots, coat and vest, and proceeded to appropriate his half of the double berth. White man, who had been dozing, turned around, looked at the new-comer, rubbed his eyes, looked again, and then came such a kicking, tumbling, sprawling, and mixture of white and black generally as would have done any amalgamationist's heart good. About this time the conductor appeared upon the scene, and the result was that the negro, with ticket in hand, tumbled into bed, whilst the white man, growling anathemas at the party he himself had helped to place in power, doggedly put on his clothes and went forward to sit with wrenched back and cramped legs, in the passenger car, ruminating over the beauties of Radical legislation. We annex, below, a copy of the law which gives the negro the privilege of choosing his seat, or sleeping berth on railroad cars:

AN ACT making it an offence for railroad corporations, within this commonwealth, to make any distinction with their passengers, on account of race or color, and punishing said corporations, and their agents and employees, for the commission of such offence.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority of the same, That on and after the passage of this act any railroad or railway corporation, within this commonwealth, that shall exclude, by their agents, conductors, or employees, from any of their passenger cars, any person or persons, on account of color, or race, or that shall refuse to carry in any of their cars, thus set apart, any person, or persons, on account of color or race, or that shall, for such reason, compel, or attempt to compel any person, or persons, to occupy any particular part of any of their cars, set apart for the accommodation of people as passengers, shall be liable, in an action of debt, to the persons thereby injured, or aggrieved in the sum of five hundred dollars, the same to be recovered, in an action of debt, as like amounts are now by law recoverable.

SECTION 2. That any agent, conductor, or employee, of any railroad or railway corporation, within this commonwealth, who shall exclude, allow to be excluded, or assist in the exclusion, from any of their cars, set apart for the accommodation of passengers, any person, or persons, on account of color, or race, or who shall throw any car, or cars, from the track, thereby preventing persons from riding, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall pay a fine, not exceeding five hundred dollars, nor less than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned, for a term not exceeding three months nor less than thirty days, or both, at the discretion of the court.

JOHN P. GLASS,
Speaker of the House of Rep.
LOUIS W. HALL,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The twenty-second day of March, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

JNO. W. GEARY.

Upon the second reading of this bill, Mr. Boyle, of Fayette, (Democrat) offered the following new section:

"SECTION 3. Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be held to compel the admission of negroes into cars set apart for ladies, or into berths for sleeping cars."

On this section, the yeas and nays were as follows:

Yeas—Messrs. Adaire, Allen, Barrington, Boyd, Boyle, Breen, Brennan, Calvin, Chalfant, Collins, Craig, Deise, Fogel, Gregory, Harner, Headman, Heltzel, Hood, Hunt, Jenks, Jones, Joseph, Kline, Koon, Kurtz, Linton, Long, M'Henry, Maish, Markley, Meyers, Mullin, Phelan, Quay, Quigley, Rhoads, Robinson, Roush, Tharp, Westbrook, and Wingard. All Democrats, except Adaire, Allen, Quay, Robinson and Wingard.—41.

Nays—Messrs. Armstrong, Barton, Brown, Cameron, Chadwick, Chase, Colville, Davis, Day, De Haven, Donohugh, Espy, Ewing, Freeborn, Gallagher, Ghegan, Gordon, Harbison, Humphrey, Kennedy, Kerns, Kimmell, Kinney, Lee, Leech, McCamant, McCreary, McKee, Mann, Marks, Mechling, Meily, Pennypacker, Peter, Pillow, RICHARDS, Seiler, Sharpless, Shuman, Steacy, Stehman, Stumbaugh, Subers, Waddell, Wallace, Webb, WELLER, Woodward, Worrall, Wright and Glass, Speaker. [All Republicans]. 51.

So this Section was lost, the Republican members, including Messrs. WELLER and RICHARDS, of this district, all voting against it, except the five above-named. The vote of Messrs. Weller and Richards thus stands recorded in favor of compelling railroad conductors to admit negroes into ladies' cars and sleeping berths. See house Journal for 1867, page 684.

On the question shall the bill pass to a third reading, the yeas and nays were:

Nays—Messrs. Barrington, Boyd, Breen, Brennan, Calvin, Chalfant, Collins, Craig, Deise, Fogle, Gregory, Harner, Headman, Heltzel, Hunt, Hood, Jones, Josephs, Kline, Koon, Kurtz, Linton, Long, McHenry, Maish, Markley, Meyers, Mullin, Phelan, Quigley, Rhoads, Robinson, Roush, Tharp, and Westbrook. [All Democrats]—35.

Thus was this bill to force negroes into seats and sleeping-berths on railroad cars, along side of white people, ladies as well as gentlemen, passed by the Radicals. It is appropriately termed the "sleeping-car stink-bill." Let Messrs. Weller and Richards be held responsible for their votes in favor of this law.

SCHELL AND FINDLAY.

If you want reform in the Legislature, if you want something done for the interests of the people of this district, if you want an earnest effort made to obtain the passage of a free Railroad law, if you want our local affairs properly attended to in the Legislature, if you want economy at Harrisburg and a consequent reduction of taxation, vote for Schell and Findlay. A few months ago the "Republican" journals were filled with articles complaining that their representatives had sold them out. Now, they ask you to re-elect them. Will you do it, or will you try somebody else?

E. F. KERR, ESQ.

This gentleman is the nominee of the Democratic Party of Bedford County, for the important office of District Attorney. The nomination was conferred upon him by the unanimous vote of the County Convention, a compliment properly bestowed. Mr. Kerr has always been a true and firm Democrat, is a very correct lawyer, and by industry, sobriety and perseverance, has attached to himself many friends in the practice of his profession. His fidelity to the Democratic cause entitles him to the solid vote of the party, and we are sure every good Democrat will feel it his duty to vote for him and work for his election.

ISSAC MENGEL.

Our candidate for Treasurer is well known throughout the county, as an honest, upright and worthy man. In the custody of Mr. Mengel, the finances of the county will be entirely safe. See that his name is on your ticket before you go to vote, as his opponent is busily engaged in circulating spurious tickets with his own name inserted instead of Mr. Mengel's.

PETER M. BARTON.

In the nomination of Peter M. Barton, of E. Providence, for County Commissioner, the Democracy made a most excellent selection. He is an excellent business man, of incorruptible integrity and deservedly popular. No man can say a word against Peter M. Barton.

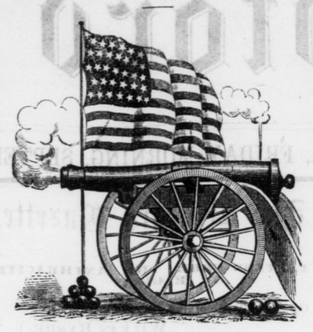
JOHN I. NOBLE.

One of the most creditable nominations made by the Democrats of this county, is that of John I. Noble, of S. Woobury, for Poor Director. Mr. Noble is a son of Hon. Joseph B. Noble, formerly Prothonotary of this county, is the proprietor of a large woolen factory, a man of good business habits, and in every way qualified for the duties of the office for which he has been nominated. Let every man who wants economy and an honest and careful administration of Poor House affairs, vote for John I. Noble.

SAMUEL WHIP, ESQ.

For Auditor, that excellent gentleman and sterling man, Samuel Whip, Esq., of Cumberland Valley, is presented on the Democratic ticket. Esq. Whip was formerly Justice of the Peace of his township, and enjoys the respect and esteem of all who know him. He will make a first rate auditor.

Another Victory!!!



BETTER AND BETTER!

Maryland Throws Off the Radical Yoke!

THE NEW LIBERAL AND DEMOCRATIC CONSTITUTION ADOPTED BY 25,000 MAJORITY!

On Wednesday, 18th inst., an election was held throughout the State of Maryland to ratify or reject the new Constitution framed by the late Convention. The Constitution of 1864, was forced upon the people of Maryland by a minority, assisted by federal bayonets. That instrument disfranchised a large body of the citizens of the State, and gave the minority power to rule the majority. The adoption of the new Constitution, repeals that odious and tyrannical instrument, and restores the power of the State government to the hands of the majority. This is the end of Radicalism in Maryland. Even the Allegany district, which last year elected Frank Thomas to Congress, by 1,500 majority (owing to the disfranchisement of several thousand voters in the district,) now gives upwards of 1,000 majority for the New Constitution. Allegany county gives about 300, Washington, 200, Carroll 200, and Frederick 300 maj. Baltimore city gives 10,500 majority for the new Constitution. The Radicals made a fierce fight against it, but they have been routed, "horse, foot and dragoons." Let us take courage from this. Pennsylvania can, also, and must, be redeemed.

A Prediction!

"I fear that we shall lose Pennsylvania this next election. I do not think we have Earnestness enough in the State to unite and draw out the Republicah Strength, while the Republican portion of our legislature has been so openly, notoriously and shamefully corrupt, that all the honest people in the State are disheartened and disgusted." Thad. Stevens.

Gives It Up!

The Chairman of the Radical State Committee, Mr. Jordan, gives up the State! We have this upon reliable authority. Now, Democrats, let us see how large we can make our majority! Roll up your sleeves, "put your shoulders to the wheel, pray to God for success, and push on the column!" Now, for victory!

Democrats! Conservatives!

FRIENDS OF THE REPUBLIC!

Are you ready for election day? Arrange your business so that you can give that day to your country. The fate of our government hangs trembling in the balance. We have recently gained important advantages over the enemy; advantages which it is our solemn duty to improve. We have turned the flanks of Radicalism, in the East and in the West, in Maine and in California; now, let us charge the centre, charge with a will, charge over the breastworks of Fanaticism, and plant the standard of Democracy upon the citadel of the foe. "Up guards and at them!"

They have succeeded in electing Haight Governor of California, where the Republicans were divided.—Inquirer.

It is well enough to whistle to keep your courage up. But you might have told your readers that the Democrats of California elected their Governor by 8,000 majority over the vote for both the Radical candidates, and their whole State ticket, too of the three Congressmen, a majority of twenty in the Legislature, there being no split among the Radicals except on Governor.

The Cops declare the country is to be ruined because a few negroes are to have political rights. Please tell us how?—Inquirer.

Exactly in the way San Domingo was ruined. In anarchy and blood.—You talk of a few negroes. Call you the black hordes that form the majority of registered voters in ten States of the Union, a few? Avaunt, ye hypocrites!

SUMNER and Wilson, of Massachusetts, and Kelley, of this State have introduced bills in Congress, to confer the right to vote and hold office, upon negroes throughout all the States of the Union. Should WILLIAMS be elected Supreme Judge, he will sustain the constitutionlity of such a law. He is pledged to do so.

A BIG GUN FOR JUDGE SHARSWOOD!

The great criminal lawyer, DAVID PAUL BROWN, ESQ., of Philadelphia, has just published a pamphlet in which he advocates the election of Judge Sharswood. Mr. Brown is one of the most radical of Radicals, and "spits upon" the Democratic platform, but goes for Sharswood as the best man that could be named for Judge of the Supreme Court. In the course of his pamphlet he says:

"The fact of Judge Williams being but forty-six years old, may be the ground of a presumption that he, by due efforts, may live to be an eminent judge, but we are to rely rather upon facts than fancy. We have in Judge Sharswood, the assurance of qualities that in the case of Judge Williams, at the best, we have only the promise of. Which, then, let me ask, would be the more reasonable choice? It takes twenty years to make a lawyer, and even then he has something to learn. A good judge would require nearly all that time on the score of mere legal competency, and he should necessarily improve during that time, in his aptitude for business, in his self-control, in his temper and demeanor, for all these things enter into the formation of his judicial character. Now, can it be supposed that with the few years that Judge Williams has occupied the bench at Pittsburgh, having comparatively limited jurisdiction, that he could have derived those advantages in the formation of a Judge, which were necessarily acquired and fully exhibited on the part of his antagonist during more than twenty years?

In conclusion, allow me to say that for the reasons suggested, I shall vote for Judge Sharswood. In doing so I do not feel that I shall compromise my principles as a thorough national Republican—in acting otherwise, I should carry with me the consciousness of doing injustice to a meritorious man, and of inflicting a causeless and a cureless wound upon the purity, permanency and integrity of the Judiciary. My term of life is short, but the lessons of this day may last—in their pernicious and corrupt influence—unto the latest posterity. Let the people, then, think of this, do what they believe to be Right, and stand firmly by their moral as well as their political faith.

DAVID PAUL BROWN."

Under the administration of Gov. John W. Geary, the State debt has been decreased $1,794,644.50 within the last year.—Inquirer.

A lie out of the whole cloth! The State authorities have been compelled to borrow twenty three millions of dollars, at six per cent. interest, to meet the obligations of the State. Our loans formerly were obtained at five per cent. interest, but Geary pays six. "So much for Republican rule!"

That fellow "believes in spooks!" Wendell Phillips, Ben. Wade, Ben. Butler, Charles Sumner & Co., bawling for impeachment, and a negro majority registered in TEN STATES, send up the price of gold. That's what's the matter.

The question to be settled on the 8th of October is not whether Judge Sharswood or Judge Williams is the better man, but whether Congress or Andy Johnson is to be sustained. Let the country answer.—Inquirer.

Aye, let the country answer! Let the people say whether they endorse Congress in TURNING OVER TEN STATES TO THE DOMINATION OF NEGROES!

THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS extra pay to each member, the Sleeping-car Stink-Bill, the defeat of the Free Railroad Law, $265,000 to pay the expenses of our legislators, and the State Library stolen! All this leads one to exclaim, "Another such a Legislature as the last one will sink us!"

And was voted for by the whole Republican party of Philadelphia, for Judge of the District Court, in 1863. What "disloyal" wretches those Philadelphia Republicans must be!

THE Inquirer has heard the news from Maine, but does not say a word about the latest returns. Democratic gain, 17,000, and a large Democratic increase in the Legislature. If the Inquirer wants to get any comfort out of that, it had better employ the fellow who extracts sunbeams from cucumbers.

ATTENTION!

Gen. Grant's father addressed an immense Democratic meeting at Cincinnata, the other day. The old man and Andy Johnson will keep the General all right. Hurrah! boys! "Things is workin'!"

THE Inquirer is on the mend. It has published Judge Sharswood's great opinion in the legal tender case. Now, if it will just say whether it and its party are in favor of establishing Negro Suffrage in Pennsylvania, we promise not to call it a coward any more.

THE Radical Congress has established Negro Suffrage in all the excluded States, and given every one of them into the power of the blacks. Do you endorse snch infamy as that?

GET out the full Democratic vote.

A QUESTION in the Single Rule of Three for the Bedford Inquirer: If the Democrats gained 17,000 in Maine, in a vote of 100,000, how many will they gain in Pennsylvania in a vote of 600,000?

VOTE for Isaac Kennsinger, Esq., for Jury Commissioner. Mr. Kensinger has made an efficient officer and deserves the united vote of the party.

REPUBLICANS! Read your own papers and see that in every excluded State the blacks are given the power of governing the whites!

AN honest confession is good for the soul. Says the Bedford Inquirer, "Another such a Legislature as the last one will sink us!"

VOTE for SCHELL and FINDLAY, for "Another such a Legislature as the last one will sink us!"

TAX-PAYERS! Your hard earnings are pressed out of your pockets to make TEN NEGRO STATES.

REMEMBER that NEXT SATURDAY is the last day on which you can be assessed

"OCCASIONAL."—The Philadelphia Press has an "occasional" scribbler, John W. Forney by name. This weather-cock has lost all shame. He may yet "look for rest and find none." I really believe his trip to Europe has had a pernicious effect on his always weak brain He writes like fire and blue blazes in his last week's "Occasional."

The "copper-heads" are at his heels, and they seem to prick him into fury where he does not itch. Hold on, Mr. Occasional, until a true Union man tells you something. Your Press Bible has lost its orthodoxy. You have rushed with railroad speed from the sublime to the ridiculous, plunging head-long into the quintessence of double-distilled folly and stupidity. You were an advocate of the war for the Union; now you declare that war to have been for Negro Equality, and you are doing all you can to keep the Union dissolved until the latter shall be accomplished. For this reason we Union men that served in the war of 1861, and in former wars, to save the Union and the Constitution, (when you were no where, within smell of gunpowder) are thinking seriously of a change of rulers. We regret that you and others like you, have made it necessary to take this step. But as the war has long been closed upon "a glorious field," we must, and will have peace all over the land, so that we may once more have Union, universal prosperity, and happiness throughout our country. Now don't bite yourself, or turn Booth. You and all other wild men of your stamp, must come to grief. Say your prayers, diligently, night and morning, and keep cool. If you can't keep cool, keep as cool as you can. For "Vengeance is mine, and I will repay," saith the Lord. We are side by side with David Paul Brown in sentiment, feeling, and action.

A BOY IN BLUE.

THE Philadelphia National Refreshment saloons, where the soldiers from every part of the Union were fed during the late war were an honor to Philadelphia, and there is a peculiar propriety in the circumstance that Philadelphia should inaugurate a plan for the endowment of a National Institute where the orphans of these same heroes may have a home and receive an education. This is what the Trustees of the Riverside Institute are aiming most unsuccessfully to accomplish. Acting under the charter of the Washington Library Company, incorporated by the State of Pensylvania, they are offering stock at the low rate of one dollar per share, and will give to each subscriber a beautiful and valuable steel engraving, worth at retail more than the price of the stock, and as an additional inducement will distribute among the stockholders presents valued at $300,000. In the distribution every one has an equal chance to obtain large presents; one is worth $10,000, another $20,000, &c. Who can refuse to do a patriotic and benevolent action on these terms. S. J. McCauslin and J. M. Shoemaker, agents for Bedford borough and county.

SPLENDID PRIZES IN GREENBACKS.—Over $5,000 in Greenbacks; $10,000 in Sewing Machines; $9000 in Washing Machines; a vast amount of Hoop Skirts, Albums, Books, Gold Pens, Pencils, Lockets, &c., &c., to be distributed to the subscribers and purchasers of the 'HOME AMUSEMENT.' DIABOLICAL OUTRAGE!—A Negro attempts to commit a Rape upon a young Lady!—He uses a Knife and threatens to cut her heart out!—Great excitement in this community!—On Friday evening last, as Miss Nora Filler daughter of Capt. Jos. Filler was passing from the lower part of town to her home, a few hundred yards distant, just as she stepped from the northern end of the "wire bridge," she was met by a negro man, who walked past her, but immediately turned about, seized her, attempted to gag her, and threw her to the ground. It was then just dusk, but a cloud had arisen in the west and a violent storm was approaching, which rendered the evening rather dark.—Still, there was sufficient light for Miss Filler to recognize her assailant, and she called him by name, begging him to desist. He replied that he would "cut her heart out," if she resisted, and "would shoot her if she told on him," drawing a knife as he said these words. Though frightened almost to death, the poor girl struggled heroically and succeeded in keeping her fiendish assailant at bay until he heard the approach of some students going to town, which drove him away before he had accomplished his purpose. Half dead with fright and terribly bruised, the young lady went toward her home, shrieking and crying, and passed the night in a state of distraction. Parties who visited her the next day, informed us that her face was much cut, and that the marks of the negro's efforts to gag her are left on her throat and cheeks. Miss Filler, on Saturday evening, made information before Esq. Nicodemus, charging John Brown, a negro lately a hostler in the stable of Mr. John Little, as the perpetrator of the crime. There was unaccountable delay in making the information and the affair was kept so quiet that but few persons knew of it until Saturday evening.—When it became known, however, there was a universal expression of horror and indignation, and every effort was at once made to arrest the criminal. A reward of $100.00 was raised by the citizens, and squads started out in every direction to find Brown. At this writing he has not been arrested. He is a short, thick set, stoop-shouldered fellow with a goatee, and is about twenty-five years old. One of his hands was cut in the struggle with Miss Filler.

A NEW RAILROAD PROJECT.—John W. Duncan Esq., and other gentlemen of Pittsburg, and James Madara, Esq., and other leading citizens of Morrison's Cove, are agitating the building of a rail road from Newry, by way of Bloomfield Furnace, through the cove to Hopewell. This is a very important enterprise. It would develop the large and valuable deposits of hematite iron and other minerals, along the route. It would offer proper facilities to the farmers to transport their crops to market, and put the people of the Cove in more direct communication with Bedford. We hope this enterprise may be successful.

There is also another project suggested, viz: the extension of the Hollidaysburg and Newry railroad to Cumberland, Md. The people of Union, St. Clair, Bedford and Cumberland Valley townships, would be greatly benefited by the success of this scheme and there is no reason why it should not be successful, if prosecuted with the proper energy. In the first place, we need legislation; there must be liberal charters for the companies that will undertake to build these roads. Much, therefore, will depend upon the character of our representatives at Harrisburg. In view of these facts, we ask, ought not every friend of railroad improvements, vote for Hon. W. P. Schell?

THE LADY'S FRIEND, for October, is unusually interesting and attractive, and cannot fail to please all who are fortunate enough to possess it. Price (with engraving) $2,50 a year; Four copies (with one engraving) $6.00.—One copy of Lady's Friend and one of Saturday Evening Post (and one engraving), $4.00. Address Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut Street, Philadelphia.

SABBATH SCHOOL PIC NIC.—About four months since, a few persons, anxious for the glory of the Redeemer and for the good of those around them, established a Union Sabbath School at Maj. Burns' School House, in Juniata Tp. Into this school about forty children have been gathered, many of whom never saw such a school before.

Under the Superintendency of Mr. McKinney, the school has prospered. The attendance of the scholars has been regular and a good work is evidently being done.

For the benefit of the scholars, a Pic Nic was given on Thursday, Sept. 19th., in a shady grove, near the School House. As the day was fair, the surroundings inviting, the scene novel, old and young appeared on the ground at an early hour, prepared for the enjoyment of the day.

Seats were arranged for the School and a stand erected for the Speakers. The exercises soon opened with singing and prayer. School addresses were then delivered by Rev's N. H. Skyles, and J. H. Donaldson. After which those present gathered around the table so plentifully spread by the friends of the school, and when all were fed, there were taken up of fragments some baskets-full.

When the provisions were discussed, "the children of larger and smaller growths," scattered about among the trees to spend the day as circumstances and inclination might suggest.

ONE PRESENT.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.—The following resolutions were unanimously adopted by Saxton Lodge, No. 575 I. O. of G. T., Sept. 16th, 1867:

Inasmuch as it has pleased Almighty God, in the dispensation of his providence, to remove from the world our worthy brother, William H. Russel, and to remind us by his death of the uncertainty of life, and that we who remain are but "dust and ashes," it is solemnly

Resolved, By Saxton Lodge, No. 272 I. O. of G. T., of which the deceased was a respected member, that with reverence and fear we do acknowledge the operation of the divine Ruler of life and death in this instance of mortality which affects so closely our fraternity and ourselves.

Resolved, That the family of the deceased have our deepand unfeigned sympathy in this their bereavement, and that the comfortable assurance be given them of the devout trust we entertain, that "their loss is his gain."

Resolved, That as a token of respect to the memory of our departed brother, we will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family of the deceased, and also published in the Monthly Circular, and Huntingdon and Bedford Conty papers.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—The bank barn of Mr. D. Gochenour, in Union township, was struck by lightning, on the evening of the 20th inst. It was burned to the ground, with all Mr. G's. grain and hay, a new buggy, and all his harness. Loss estimated over three thousand dollars. No insurance.

FOR SALE CHEAP.—Four large ten plate stoves, suitable for Church or School House. Inquire of John G. Minnich, or H. Nicodemus.

FAIR.—Persons who purpose attending the Fair, next week, should remember that at R. W. Berkstresser & Co.'s, on Julianna St., is the place to purchase cheap and durable goods.

J. M. SHOEMAKER has just received the largest stock of new goods brought to Bedford this season. Read his advertisement, under head of "New Advertisements."

NEW DISCOVERY.—Our friend T. R. Gettys has discovered a new process of photographing which enables him to take fine pictures for the low price of 25 cents. See his advertisement in another column.

GRAY HAIRS may not mar one's good looks and in many cases even improve the appearance, but as a general rule are considered objectionable and many devices are resorted to to prevent or get rid of them. We know of no mode so little troublesome or objectionable as the use of Ring's Vegetable Ambrosia, an article which of late has become so immensely popular as a toilet article and beautifier. It is easily applied, restores gray or faded hair, prevents, and in many cases cures baldness, cleanses the scalp and leaves the hair in splendid condition for arranging.

ELECTION DAY, Tuesday, Oct. 8.

MARRIED.

CARVER—FARQUHAR—At the M. E. Church, in Bedford, on Wednesday evening, 18th inst., by Rev. Reid, Mr. A B. Carver to Miss Sadie Farquhar, both of this place.

The printers acknowledge the receipt of a fine cake with the above notice. The happy couple will please accept our best wishes.

DIED.

HILLEGASS—At her residence, on the Glade Pike, in Allegheny township, Somerset county, on the 12th inst., Mrs. Maria, consort of Peter R. Hillegass, aged 52 years, 2 months and 7 days. The death of this Christian woman has cast a gloom over a large circle of relations and friends. But most sadly does it affect her bereaved husband and children. They mourn not without hope. The deceased was dedicated to the Lord in infancy, by Holy Baptism. In early life she was instructed in the doctrines of our Holy Religion, and received into full communion with the Reformed Church by confirmation. She dearly loved the Church of her fathers, and continued to be a consistent, faithful and active member to the day of her death. She was an affectionate wife, a loving mother and a kind neighbor. On the 14th inst, her remains were taken to the Reformed Church of Schellsburg, where appropriate services were held, in the presence of a large and sympathising congregation. She was buried in the Chestnut Ridge Union Cemetery, with two of her children, who preceded her to the land of rest. Thus another Christian pilgrim has reached her eternal home, and now enjoys that rest, which remaineth for the people of God. "I heard the voice of Jesus say,

Come unto me and rest;
Lay down, thou weary one, lay down
Thy head upon my breast."

LING—Suddenly on the 5th inst., Mrs. Juliann, wife of John Ling, of Bedford township, aged 37 years, 10 months and 10 days. The deceased was an humble and consistent Christian woman, and though she was very suddenly called to leave her family and friends on earth, she was not unprepared for Heaven.

WRAY—At his residence in Londonderry tp., on the 12th of May last, W. H. Wray, aged 45 years and 11 months.

The above notice was mislaid or it would have appeared sooner. Mr. Wray served honorably in the Federal army during the late war and was much respected.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That every person excepting Justices of the Peace who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the United States, or of this State, or any city or corporated district, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise, a subordinate officer or agent who is or shall be employed under the legislative, executive or judiciary department of this State, or of any city, or of any incorporated district, and also, that every member of Congress and of the State Legislature, and of the select or common council of any city, or commissioners of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the time, the office or appointment of Judge, Inspector or Clerk of any election of this Commonwealth; and that no Inspector, Judge or other officer of such election shall be elegible to be then voted for.

And the said act of assembly entitled "an act relating to elections of this Commonwealth," passed July 2, 1819, further provides as follows, viz:

"That the Inspector and Judges shall meet at the respective places appointed for holding the election in the district at which they respectively belong, before 8 o'clock in the morning of the SECOND TUESDAY OF OCTOBER, and each said inspector shall appoint one clerk, who shall be a qualified voter of such district.

"In case the person who shall have received the highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend on the day of any election, then the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for Judge at the next preceding election shall act as Inspector in his place. And in case the person who has received the second highest number of votes for Inspector shall not attend, the person elected Judge shall appoint an Inspector in his place, and if any vacancy still continue in the board for the space of one hour after the time fixed by law for the opening of the election the qualified voters of the township, ward or district for which such officer shall have been elected, present at the election, shall elect one of their number to fill such vacancy.

"It shall be the duty of the several assessors respectively to attend at the place of holding every general, special or township election, during the whole time such election is kept open, for the purpose of giving information to the Inspectors and Judge, when called on, in relation to the right of any person assessed by them to vote at such election, and on such other matters in relation to the assessment of voters, as the said Inspectors or other of them shall from time to time require.

"No person shall be permitted to vote at any election as aforesaid, than a white citizen of the age of twenty-one or more, who shall have resided in this State at least one year, and in the election district where he offers to vote, ten days immediately preceding such election, and within two years paid a State or County tax, which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election. But a citizen of the United States who has previously been a qualified voter of this State and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the election district and paid taxes aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote after residing in this State six months. Provided, That the white freemen, citizens of the United States, between the age of twenty-one and twenty two years who have resided in the election district ten days as aforesaid shall be entitled to vote, although they shall not have paid tax.

"No person shall be permitted to vote whose name is not contained in the list of taxable inhabitants, furnished by the Commissioners, unless: First, he produce a receipt of payment, within two years of State or County tax assessed agreeably to the Constitution, and give satisfactory evidence on his own oath or affirmation of another that he has paid such a tax, or in failure to produce a receipt shall make oath to the payment thereof; or second, if he claim a right to vote by being an elector between the age of twenty-one and twenty-two years shall depose on oath or affirmation, that he has resided in the State at least one year before his application, and make such proof of residence in the district as is required by this act, and that he does verily believe from the account given him that he is of the age aforesaid, and gives such other evidence as is required by this act, whereupon the name of the person so admitted to vote shall be inserted in the alphabetical list by the Inspector, and a note made opposite thereto by writing the word "tax," if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of having paid tax, and the word "age" if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of age, and in either case the reason of such a vote shall be called out to the clerks, who shall make a like note in the list of voters kept by them.

"In all cases where the name of the person claiming to vote is not found on the list furnished by the Commissioners, or his right to vote whether found thereon or not, is objected to by any qualified citizen, it shall be the duty of the Inspectors to examine such person on oath as to his qualifications, and if he claims to have resided within the state for one year or more, his oath shall be sufficient proof thereof, but he shall make proof by at least one competent witness, who shall be a qualified elector, that he has resided within the district for more than ten days immediately preceding said election and shall also swear that his bona fide residence, in pursuance of his lawful calling is within the district, and that he did not remove within the district for the purpose of voting.

"Every person qualified as aforesaid, and who shall make due proof if required, of his residence and payment of taxes aforesaid, shall be admitted to vote in the township, ward or district in which he shall reside.

"If any person shall prevent or attempt to prevent any officer of an election, under this act from holding such election, or use or threaten any violence to any such officer, and shall interrupt or improperly interfere with him in the execution of his duty, shall block up or attempt to block up the window or avenue to any window where the same may be holden, or shall riotously disturb the peace of such election, or shall use or practice intimidation, threats, force or violence, with the design to influence unduly or overawe any elector, or prevent him from voting, or to restrain the freedom of choice, such persons on conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, to be imprisoned for any time not less than one nor more than twelve months, and if it shall be shown to the court where the trial of such offence shall be had, that the person so offending was not a resident of the city, ward or district where the said offence was committed, and not entitled to vote therein, on conviction, he shall be sentenced to pay a fine not less than one hundred or more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years.

"If any person or persons shall make any bet or wager upon the result of an election within the Commonwealth, or shall offer to make any such bet or wager, either by verbal proclamation thereof, or by any written or printed advertisement, or invite any person or persons to make such bet or wager, upon conviction thereof he or they shall forfeit and pay three times the amount so bet or offered to be bet.

The qualified electors will take notice of the following act of Assembly, approved 12th day of March, 1866: AN ACT, Regulating the mode of voting at all elections, in the several counties of this Commonwealth.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same. 1867.—"THE WORLD."—1867.
The attention of the public is invited to the claims of "The World" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merits consists in its character as an enterprising and trustworthy newspaper.
The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions than even any eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requisite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interst, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments, which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance. In politics, THE WORLD will continue to be the bold advocate of a Liberal, Progressive Democracy. The unflinching champion of Freedom, Justice, Order and Constitutional Rights. The inspiration of its politics is Freedom restrained by Justice; or, to speak more strictly, Freedom pure and simple, in the largest collective measure; the office of justice being merely to protect freedom from encroachments; Freedom of the individual citizen in his rights of thought, speech, religion and locomotion; in his Right to choose his own food and drink, in spite of meddlesome temperance laws; in his Right to make any money bargains he thinks proper, in spite of foolish usury laws; in his Right to buy and sell in all markets, domestic and foreign, in spite of unjust protective tariffs; in his Right to representation in the legislative bodies which tax him, in spite of unconstitutional exclusions; Freedom of collective citizens to assemble for discussion of grievances; Freedom of all local communities to manage their local affairs without central interference; Freedom in every section of the country from the arrogant and unconstitutional domination of other sections; this large and comprehensive idea of Freedom sums up the politics of THE WORLD, which will never be found wanting to this capital interest of the country and of the human race.
In its accurate Commercial Intelligence and careful, reliable market reports, THE WORLD will continue to maintain its present high reputation. A paper published in the commercial metropolis is naturally looked to for authentic information relating to trade, commerce and finance; and this being a feature in which the THE WORLD prides itself, it boldly challenges comparison with every journal in the metropolis.
EDITIONS.
The WEEKLY WORLD, a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, is now printed throughout in large type, and has the largest circulation of any weekly journal published, save one. Its extraordinary success since its union with the New York ARGUS has justified the most liberal expenditures, which will make it unrivalled in interest and value to farmers.
